

COLORADO-BASED ORGANIZATIONS

Listed in alphabetical order.

Note: A referring professional is someone who completes paperwork on your behalf to submit to the organization. This is generally a patient navigator or social worker based at your treatment facility who can confirm your diagnosis and treatment regime, if required by the organization.

Friends of Man

303-798-2342

www.friendsofman.org

Description: Helps people with basic or special needs (such as wheelchairs, eyeglasses, clothing, etc.) that cannot be provided elsewhere. Requires a referring professional.

James L. Quint Foundation

303-428-5983

www.jameslquintfoundation.org

Description: Financial assistance to cancer patients in Colorado for expenses like prescriptions, nutritional supplements, medical supplies, transportation, insurance premiums and COBRA payments.

Marlene F. Landy Cancer Foundation

303-740-8142

www.landyfoundation.org

Description: Financial assistance for cancer patients. Each situation is evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Call or email to request assistance.

Project Angel Heart

303-830-0202

www.projectangelheart.org

Description: Provides meal delivery service for those living in Denver Metro or Colorado Springs. Must have a current diagnosis of a life-threatening illness and documented difficulty preparing or accessing healthy meals due to illness. Requires a referring professional.

Rocky Mountain Cancer Assistance

720-229-0303

www.rockymountaincancerassistance.org

Description: Provides one-time financial assistance to low-income cancer patients for day-to-day living expenses. Must have cancer diagnosis and be receiving active cancer treatment in Colorado. Requires a referring professional.

Ray of Hope Foundation

720-300-2095

www.rayofhopecolorado.org

Description: Provides one-time financial assistance to low-income cancer patients for day-to-day living expenses. Must be a Colorado resident. Requires a referring professional.

Sense of Security

866-736-3113

www.senseofsecurity.org

Description: Provides monthly financial assistance to breast cancer patients living in Colorado to help with everyday expenses like mortgage or rent, medical insurance premiums, groceries, child care, transportation and utilities. Must be within two months of breast cancer surgery or currently undergoing chemotherapy, radiation therapy, or gene therapy.